Marine Industry Notable Joins Emerald Pacific Yachts in Seattle

Seattle, WA - Emerald Pacific Yachts is pleased to announce the addition of Randy Cowley to their Seattle sales team. Randy has been an integral member of the Seattle marine community for almost 15 years.

Growing up in New York, sailing on Long Island Sound, he began his boating career with the sale of his first boat at the 1969 New York City Boat Show. Randy relocated to Newport Beach, California in 1976, where he founded Venwest Yachts. In 1996 he agreed to represent Westbay Sonship and open another office in Seattle. Among others, he has also represented Viking, Cabo and Tiara Yachts.

Feeding his passion for sailing, Randy has competed in most of the ocean races worldwide. He has logged over 400,000 miles on power and sailboats all over the world.

Emerald Pacific Yachts welcomes Randy's wealth of knowledge and experience in the construction of large luxury motor yachts and his many years of building strong client relationships.
